The sheet music consists of five staves of music. The first four staves are in common time (indicated by T) and the last staff is in 2/4 time (indicated by T). The notation uses three horizontal lines for each staff, with dots indicating where fingers should press down on the strings. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes. Below each staff, a sequence of letters A, b, and B is provided, likely indicating a repeating pattern or specific fingerings. The first four staves end with a repeat sign and two endings. Ending 1 continues the sequence, while Ending 2 starts with a new pattern under a different ending sign.
